Exciting<sup>vision</sup>

Welcome to Veraluxe

No more Indian Trail, but that's exciting! Because we've changed our name for a very good reason. We're upgrading styles and moving into new design territory. We're confident that you'll love the results.

Furniture design never stands still. That's why we hired several new designers to create stunning collections with award-winning styling.

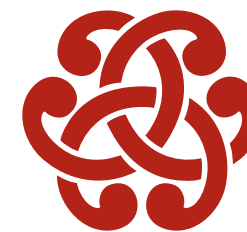

Full of fresh ideas that look more like tomorrow than today, these designers are taking our product line to the next level. But be assured of this: everything you've come to count on at Indian Trail is still here. The commitment to fine craftsmanship. The dedication to customer service. And the responsiveness to your custom requests.

We're still the people you know and trust, just looking further ahead. Look with us.
