Hello Everyone!

Winter and Christmas production season has begun, and our product line is growing! We have many new items in our winter catalog, and we're excited to hear what you think of them. So many of our customers have told us that adding new items to each catalog really brings back their customers. One of our goals is to continue developing new, trendy items to keep your customers excited to see what's next.

For instance, our farm animal line is keeping us super busy. Thank you for all the orders and reorders that are coming in. They are so popular, we've decided to continue offering them in this winter catalog, along with adding additional designs. Check out the new highland cow and bear in the Christmas version. We'll continue to add more animals in future catalogs as well. And we are developing new ideas for our spring catalog already.

Breaking News! Beginning in 2025, WCC will be a distributor for CTI pots and planters. Conveniently, you will be able to order your crafts and pots together!

Some interesting facts about Woodland Country Creations:

- Joseph started making crafts when he was 14 years old. His father was very supportive and helped guide him to markets where he could sell his crafts.
- When Joseph was 17 years old, he met his first big goal of selling a full semi-truck load to a large midwestern wholesaler.
- In 2019, when he was 22 years old, he built the 8,000-square-foot workshop and warehouse where our crafts are produced.
- Now, Joseph is married, has 3 children, and a large, friendly dog. He also has an average of eight employees building crafts daily.
- Our customer base is primarily garden centers, marketplaces, gift shops, wholesale warehouses, and people selling our crafts at fairs and festivals.
- Joseph has always loved creating new items, and he enjoys getting ideas and suggestions from his customers.
- Through Lean Thinking and using Lean Tools, we can now produce your entire order at one time instead of building inventory and picking your order from there. Already we have seen a tremendous increase in efficiency, and the orders are shipping much, much more quickly than previously. We will still be carrying some inventory for those of you who like to stop by and shop from our warehouse.
- Some benefits of our new methods are: less inventory, but room for some of everything in stock; quicker inventory restock for Woodland and for YOU; less lead time for orders; less damage, and better quality. All these benefits add up to Woodland Country Creations being able to offer you exciting choices without increasing prices from 2023!

Our Mission Statement: To supply our customers with quality home décor by continuously improving our product line, understanding trends, and improving processes at the right price.
